

Frequently Asked Questions about Team-Based Learning Developed by the TBLC Membership Committee

The TBLC Membership Committee would like to thank you for your interest in team-based learning and some of its best practices. We encourage you to investigate becoming a member of our organization.

Q: How do I become a member of the TBLC?

Two options for membership include: Institutional (up to 5 members) and Individual Memberships. Memberships may be discounted based on a country's gross national product. For more information, click on the "Become a Member" button on the right side of the webpage: <https://www.teambasedlearning.org/membership/>

The webpage is also available in other languages; use the dropdown menu in the upper right corner of the webpage.

Q: What benefits are there to membership of the TBLC?

Many! Check out links to our grant opportunities, certifications, mentorship, social hours, and many more benefits here: <https://www.teambasedlearning.org/benefits/>

Q: Where can I get examples of TBL and in what fields?

Examples of TBL can be found in many publications across a wide range of disciplines. TBLC members also gain access to a Resource Portal with full TBL modules that you can use or modify for your own needs. Access to a member's only page will be granted with your membership identification at this link: <https://teambasedlearning.site-ym.com/>

You may also click on the "Resources" link at the top of the public website for additional ideas: <https://www.teambasedlearning.org/>
